"Dear friends, may no adversity paralyze you. Be afraid neither of the world, nor of the future, nor of your weakness. The Lord has allowed you to live in this moment of history so that, by your faith, his name will continue to resound throughout the world."

Baptized and Sent: The Church of Christ on Mission in the World Message of Pope Francis

- ✦ Dear Brothers and Sisters,
- ✦ For the month of October 2019, I have asked that the whole Church revive her missionary awareness and commitment as we commemorate the centenary of the Apostolic Letter Maximum Illud of Pope Benedict XV (30 November 1919). Its farsighted and prophetic vision of the apostolate has made me realize once again the importance of renewing the Church's missionary commitment and giving fresh evangelical impulse to her work of preaching and bringing to the world the salvation of Jesus Christ, who died and rose again.

TEN GREAT REASONS TO BE CATHOLIC

Be a Missionary Disciple

“We cannot but experience a great inner joy when we see so many pastors, religious and lay people, fired with their mission to evangelize, seeking ever more suitable ways of proclaiming the Gospel effectively. We encourage the openness which the Church is showing today in this direction and with this solicitude. It is an openness to meditation first of all, and then to ecclesial ministries capable of renewing and strengthening the evangelizing vigor of the Church.” -Paul VI, para 73

“Because of the one dignity we received from baptism, every baptized person shares a responsibility for the Church’s mission.” - Pope John Paul II

“I dream of a ‘missionary option’, that is, a missionary impulse capable of transforming everything...for the evangelization of today’s world...”

Pope Francis Evangelii Gaudium (Joy of the Gospel) para. 27
