2026 Lenten Reflections with Bishop Hying

Welcome to Conquered by Christ, a study program inspired by the Sunday Gospel readings during the season of Lent. Join Bishop Donald J. Hying each week as we reflect on all that Jesus has conquered – Satan, sin, division, sickness, death, etc. – leading up to Easter and Christ's ultimate victory on the Cross.

Perfect for individuals, families, and small groups, this five-week program includes videos from Bishop Hying, discussion guides, prayers, saintly role models, and ways to grow in virtue during this Lenten journey.

On this page, you will find all the resources for each week of Lent. A printable study guide for each week also can be found with Bishop Hying's videos below.

STATIONS OF THE CROSS

The Stations of the Cross (or the “Way of the Cross”) are a way to walk prayerfully with Jesus through His Passion and death, reflecting on how He conquered sin, suffering, and death for our salvation.

The following excerpts are from “The Way of the Cross” by Cardinal Joseph Ratzinger.

A video of Bishop Hying reciting the stations can be found at

Matthew 17:1-9: The 2nd Sunday of Lent, Year A, Gospel Reflection, Fr. Tim Peters

2nd Sunday of Lent

Sunday Gospel: Matthew 17:1-9_[RSVCE] – Year A

¹ And after six days Jesus took with him Peter and James and John his brother, and led them up a high mountain apart. ² And he was transfigured before them, and his face shone like the sun, and his garments became white as light. ³ And behold, there appeared to them Moses and Elijah, talking with him. ⁴ And Peter said to Jesus, "Lord, it is well that we are here; if you wish, I will make three booths here, one for you and one for Moses and one for Elijah." ⁵ He was still speaking, when lo, a bright cloud overshadowed them, and a voice from the cloud said, "This is my beloved Son,^w with whom I am well pleased; listen to him." ⁶ When the disciples heard this, they fell on their faces, and were filled with awe. ⁷ But Jesus came and touched them, saying, "Rise, and have no fear." ⁸ And when they lifted up their eyes, they saw no one but Jesus only. ⁹ And as they were coming down the mountain, Jesus commanded them, "Tell no one the vision, until the Son of man is raised from the dead." ¹⁰ And the disciples asked him, "Then why do the scribes say that first Elijah must come?" ¹¹ He replied, "Elijah does come, and he is to restore all things; ¹² but I tell you that Elijah has already come, and they did not know him, but did to him whatever they pleased. So also the Son of man will suffer at their hands." ¹³ Then the
